Hello,

Of the list below, the only thing that might be of interest:

Urban, Sylvanus, Gent.

THE GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE: Historical Chronicle. For the Year MDCCXCVIII. Volume LXVIII. Part The Second.

London: John Nichols, 1798.

Quarter Leather. Previous owner's name written in pencil on ffep. No pencil or ink markings in text. One fourth leather spine on paper covered boards. 5 raised bands on spine; red spine label. Chipping at top of spine with piece missing. Side edges of front and rear boards are worn. Corners bumped. Paper chipped at top of front board from middle to corner and at bottom corner with some loss. Paper chipping at top and bottom corners on rear board with some loss. Some foxing on endpapers. Digital pictures of book available upon request; NOT Ex-Library.

Good+ binding
Item #218876
$200

Just put the inventory number in the search field at the top left. I'll go ahead and process the Guthrie order. The total after shipping will be $45. I'll keep your name and email in the event I run into anything that might interest you. Best,

Mike

Thank you very much for the information about each Guthrie Geography Volume II we talked about today. I am buying the one which has the intact folded table of British Imports and a part of the coin table. The price you set was $40 plus shipping. Please charge it to my credit card xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx . Please send it to Eric P. Newman 6450 Cecil Ave. St. Louis MO 63105

My library tries to obtain older books with American numismatic information and I would like to have you submit any you might have. I do not wish auction catalogs or price lists. It is not easy to find the books which are partially on numismatic subjects which would include American coinage and paper money matters For the moment I would like JACOB PERKINS by Bathe, Historical Society of Pennsylvania, 1943: I need to complete some of my books by Jacob Eckfeldt. Anything written by Ordway.

There are some issues of Gentlemen's Magazine (England) I need also. Also some HISTORICAL MAGAZINE (US).
